COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ENGLISH

Integrated Language Arts 9 (Yearlong)
Grade 9

Prereq: None
Credit: English

The class includes learning the processes for close-reading and annotation of literature; explication and annotation of verse; writing essays and self and peer editing, assessing, revising of those same compositions; developing technical writing skills in both the informational and argumentative mode; establishing a common language vocabulary for grammar, parts of speech, the literary elements, poetry and literary terms.

Integrated Language Arts 10 (Yearlong)
Grade 10

Prereq: ILA 9
Credit: English

This class has four major units: Narrative, Informational, Argumentative and Poetry/Drama. For the narrative unit, students study models of narrative techniques and then produce their own stories. For the informational unit, students analyze informational texts and research techniques and then utilize this knowledge to produce a research paper. In the argumentative unit, students investigate rhetorical techniques and then utilize them to produce and deliver a speech and participate in a debate. Finally, for the poetry and drama unit, students examine various ways of using figurative language to create meaning and poetic structures using this as a basis for an analytical reading of William Shakespeare's Macbeth. This class also includes a study of analytical writing techniques and self/peer editing.

English 11 Bridge to College English Prep (Yearlong)
Grade 11

Prereq: ILA 9 and 10
Credit: English

The course curriculum emphasizes focused reading, writing, speaking & listening, and research work based on Washington State's K-12 Learning Standards for English language arts (the Common Core State Standards, CCSS- ELA). This course will develop students' college and career readiness by building skills in critical reading, academic writing, speaking and listening, research and inquiry, and language use as defined by the CCSS-ELA for high school. The course will also develop essential habits of mind necessary for student success in college, including independence, productive persistence, and metacognition.

Advanced Placement English Language & Composition (Yearlong)
Grades 11-12

Prereq: ILA 9 and 10
Credit: English

Advanced Placement English Language and Composition is a class that gives high school students the opportunity to receive advanced placement and/or college credit through passing the AP exam in May of each year. The curriculum level of this class is comparable to an introductory college course. Students who choose AP English Language and Composition should be interested in studying and writing various kinds of analytic or persuasive prose on primarily nonliterary topics. In short, the goal of the class is to develop our skills as effective writers through a study of style and effective techniques, as well as reading critically how other authors and writers develop their craft. The opportunity that this class provides to enter college-level conversations about composition is unique and opens the door to many opportunities in our high school and in university-level education.

Students may have the opportunity to earn college credit by passing the AP exam in May.
